Yellowstone National Park

Visitors are welcome to use picnic areas throughout the park. Numbers on the map indicate locations that correspond to listings in a chart on the reverse side. Look for signs along roadways that indicate each picnic area.

Each picnic area has tables, and most have vault toilets. Overnight camping is not allowed in any picnic area in the park.

Camping stoves and self-contained charcoal grills may be used to prepare food at any picnic area. Wood campfires are allowed only in picnic areas with designated fire grates.

Madison is the only picnic area that offers an available source of potable water.

Picnic Areas

Campfires are allowed only in picnic areas with fire grates.

Camp stoves (liquid or gas) and self-contained charcoal grills may be used for food preparation at all locations.w

Do not feed any wild animals, including birds. It is unhealthy, and encourages aggressive behavior that may require management action.

All food, trash, coolers and cooking tools must be kept secure in a bear-proof container unless in immediate use.

Overnight camping is not allowed in any picnic area.
